16

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-15 are, drawn to a multiply product, classified in class 428, subclass 195.
- II. Claims 16-20 are are, drawn to a method tabs for use in multiply product, classified in class 156, subclass 157.
- III. Claims 21-27 are, drawn to a method for making multiply product, classified in class 156, subclass 159.

Inventions III and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as one that providing precut material thus avoiding the additional step of cutting same .

The inventions are further distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions II and I are distinct and separate from each other because Invention I relates to a multiply product while Invention II teaches a method of making tabs.

Inventions II and III are distinct and separate from each other because Invention II teaches a method of making tabs while Invention III relates a method of making multiply product.

18

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

19

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

20

A telephone call was made to applicant's attorney, Mr. C. Brant Cook again on 9-28-06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

21
